BOWIE : FACES

BOWIE : FACES is the most comprehensive exhibition of portrait photography of the late David Bowie ever held. The show features the work of six photographers including Terry O'Neill, Brian Duffy and Masayoshi Sukita covering the period from 1972 to 2002 and includes the original artwork from eight Bowie album covers. The exhibition features will over 30 photographs that explore the evolution in Bowie's style and visual presentation over the most important 30 years of his career.

January 8 would have been David Bowie's 70th birthday and January 10 is the first anniversary of his death. In commemoration the highly successful V&A exhibition "DAVID BOWIE is" exhibition will open in Tokyo on January 8 at Terada Warehouse, Tennozu, Tokyo and includes images from all the photographers represented in BOWIE : FACES.

BOWIE : FACES will be held in three different locations in Tokyo over the first three months of 2017 starting at Daikanyama Tsutaya on 6th January and ending on 2nd April at Blitz Gallery in Shimomeguro. For Bowie fans and lovers of portrait photography, this once-in-a-lifetime exhibition brilliantly captures in images the essence of David Bowie through the eyes of six of the world's greatest photographers.
